Willfully ignoring mountains of data that's inconvenient to Katy Graves' narrative. She made $68K here. Up from $53K the year before. She ain't going to go make $83K down there. But no one will call her on it. I called it out in specifics. They won't quote me. I gotta take a vacation, but I really want to get this public information page up because the "press" here will not do its job.
